Alexandria Gazette 74

THURSDAY EVENING, JUNE 15.

PINCHBACK FOR THE CABINET. -Shall there be a colored man in the next Cabinet? There should be if Mr. Morton is nominated at Cincinuati and elected, for Mr. Pinchback, we learn, has organized all the colored delegates in his behalf. Gratitude would compel President Morton to make Mr. Prichback either Secretary of State or Secretary of War. It might be well for ambitious statesmen to pay Pinchback a little attention, for he may be the colored Warwick of the next administration. But all depends on Morton. -N. Y Herald.

SINCE the trade in human hair has been so much injured in Paris by the reports that the tresses displayed in shop windows came from the hospitals or from the heads of dead persons, many Parisiennes insist upon having the hair cut off in their presence. The dealers are, however, equal to the emergency. They bring up their Breton girl in full costume. She cries as her locks are cut and the buyer is satisfied. U-ually the girl is an impostor and the hair fastened to her head by an artful process.

A family of eight negroes were poisoned to death in Leneir, N. C., by strychnine which a former had put into pork. He had lost meat several times, and took that way of punishing which equally good selections can be made, at the thickes.

THE ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER will soon cel-brate its centennial year. More than three quarters of a century ago it grew into life a creation of wants and needs of the people of this section of Virginia.

During all this period its prominent object has been to advance the interests of the people of whose life it is the daily chronicle. Its fortunes have been their fortunes; it has shared their prosperity and suffered in their disasters. Its inspiration has been the desire to forward the best interests of the community in which it is located, and its own prosperity is, as it has been purposely made, inseparable from that of the community it aims to represent. When they grow rich it hopes for a reward commensurate with its labors. While they are poor it expects to work with them and for them, expecting to make their success the measure of its own. The past of the Gazette is offered as an index of its future. It has never failed to avail itself perience of journalism. Every year NEW FEATURES will be added.

THE GAZETTE MEANS TO BE THE NEWSPAPER OF VIRGINIA. It will furnish daily a complete account, with superfluities only lopped away, of all the current news of the promptly of all the improvements which come with the greater growth and more extended ex-

As the interests of the people mainly centre at home, no pains will be spared to chronicle all matters occurring in the city and neighborhood, carefully excluding unseemly expressions or gross narrative as unit for a journal that is treasured at many thousand hearthstones of Virginia. Especial attention will be devoted to presenting, as well from original sources of information as from its exchanges, the news of Virginia, especially such as relate to the development of the resources of the State. Its contiguity to Washington gives the Gazette an early precedence over all the journal ceedings of Congress, seldom so interesting as now, will be regularly reported in succinct form for its columns, but all matters of especial interest in Virginia will be given in detail, and the full text of all bilis of local interest will be given.

From the State Capital it will receive early and accurate accounts of the proceedings of the General Assembly and of all the operations of the State government likely to interest the people.
In its Commercial columns the especial feature will be promptness and accuracy. The farmers, drovers and commercial people of the State know they MAY DEPEND upon the Early and reliable reports of the Grain, Cattle, Grocery and other Markets will be furnished, and the prices and position of the stocks, which are the subjects of business transactions in this ection of the country, carefully quoted.

The continual layors of those who have once used the Gazette as an advertising medium is a warrant for saying that it pays to advertise in its columns. Never before did it pay so well to tell th , public what is for sale.
